She strongly considered Auburn over Boston College, VA Tech, South Carolina, Rutgers, Miami and West Point. " I have been to quite a few campuses but when I stepped on Auburn, I knew, this was home. I had a list of things that I required and Auburn blew that away. I enjoyed spending time with the coach, team and 2012 recruits, they created the total package for me."

The head coach of Auburn Soccer program since 1999 and long time Region 3 ODP coach as well as National accolades, Karen Hoppa, has guided the club to 7 SEC Western Division Championships and Nine NCAA Tournament berths. Over the past 12 seasons, Coach Hoppa made the school record with 5 consecutive from 2006-10, to then move to elite status in the history of women's soccer at the end of last season.
